Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ally s Birth-Day: The Cadi and Carpet-Mender Ally, Al, come here; quick! - where s Alice? Mama wants her; cried George Taylor, a little boy of seven years old, rushing into the nursery, and looking round the room in search of his eldest sister. Ally and Bertie are in the garden, said his cousin Helen, who was reading at an open window. I see them though; they re coming now, George. George, who was evidently brimful of something very important, flew to the door to catch Alice the moment she came in. You must come to mama this very moment, Al, in the dining-room, and tell her what you want to do on your birthday. At the word birth-day, Helen shut her book, little Mary threw down her doll, and even Charlie, or, as he was more usually called, baby, stopped in the middle of the Chinese wall he was building with his bricks. Oh! Alice, cried Helen, ask aunt to let you have a throne in the bower; and we ll make a procession,...
