How can I make a difference? We all have asked these questions, but what if your search for answers has been stifled by a great evil done to you when you were just an innocent child? What if you weep--privately and often? What Makes You Weep? is Jeanne Reynolds's real-life story of shattered innocence and betrayal, and of overcoming the effects of childhood sexual abuse through God's love and the power of the Holy Spirit. Told with simplicity and empathy, it is also an inspirational guide for millions of women who have known such hurt and loss. Often it is a life of desperate survival: For some it is driving ambition, for others hopelessness and defeat--all are unhealed women with a wounded child inside of them. But in this discerning book, Jeanne offers women another way--a life of direction through peace, joy, genuine purpose, and accomplishment.
