Excerpt: . . . 11 to support to release those funds to you now, but seemingly the Speaker of the House doesnt want to move in that direction for fear of a political battle between the UAW and the environmental movement. But if it is truly an emergency, that money should be reprogrammed. I yield back. The C. The gentleman from Georgia is recognized for 2 HAIRMAN minutes. COTT Mr. S. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. Welcome back, gentleman. When you were last here, we talked specifically about helping the small businesses, the small auto dealers. In my district in Metro Atlanta, I represent about 31 towns and cities, and deal-ers are an integral part of that economy. And I asked each of you, and each of you agreed, that we would have this end, this plan. One, that we would make direct capital accessible for these dealers through the Treasury Department. That we would also have what we call disaster emergency loans that are right there available in SBA. Nothing off of your plate. All it would have to be would be the President or SBA Director be able to target these. This would help African-American dealers whom I represent quite a bit in the Metropolitan Atlanta area. And secondly, to set that 1 billion aside to be able to give low-interest loans. The problem with the dealers is they cant get access to capital. And I think a major part of this would be for you to make sure that is in there. You agreed to do it at the last meeting. We want...
