Co 25 ADVERTISING CLUB AT PHILA-DELPHIA In connection with the twelfth annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which opened at Philadelphia, June 26, the history of printing and lithographing was shown in a gorgeous advertising pagent. More than 7, 000 were in the monster parade and the cost of the costumes and equipment worn by the marchers is placed at 100, 000. Magnificent floats were in the line of march, the cost of which is estimated at 250, 000. Thousands of spectators lined the route of the parade. The Advertising Association of Chicago formed one of the largest delegations at the convention. Its float was a magnificent chariot and made an impressive showing in the pageant. Advertising men from all sections of the country attended the convention. In the married and single mens ball game, President Curlee, who attempted to umpire, was driven from the field under shouts of robber and out with the umpire. This picnic is reported to be one of the get together affairs ever held by the Curlee Company, and reflects the democratic spirit of this organization. The welfare association of the Curlee Company is now planning a steamboat excursion, to be held next month. CURLEE EMPLOYES PICNIC More than 1, 500 employes of the Curlee Clothing Company, St. Louis,...
