Here, in days past, a sect of wizards, druids, and powerful warriors built their abode. A great store of wealth and knowledge they brought to their temple, built in the hopes of finding the secret of eternal peace. Legends tell of a day when the mountain shook, and the sky turned crimson and black, and great magics were flung across the foothills in an epic struggle. and then the Sickle grew quiet, and has remained that way for eons. These legends linger in the memories of only a few. In the town of Brionne, at the base of the Sickle, the stories are spun of the Mountain as a source of fabulous wealth and unimaginable power. Only the very brave, or very foolish, would dare to seek their fortunes in its forsaken halls. The Fingers of the Forsaken Hand is a Castles & Crusades adventure designed for six to eight characters of 8th-10th level.
