Excerpt: . . . whether judicial or iniiflsterinl, in the performance of their duty. It would, moreover, be inadequate to extend the protection due from the government, to that portion of the people of South Carolina, against outrage and oppression of any kind, who may mam feu their attachment and yield obedience to the laws of the union. It may therefore be desirable to revive, with some modifications better adapted lo the occasion, the 6th section of the act of the 3d of March, 1815, which expired on the 4th of March, 1817, by the limitation of that of 27th of April. J8l6, and to provide that in nny case where suit shall be brought against nny individual in the courts of the state, for nny act done under the laws of the United States, he should be authorised to remove the said cause by petition into the circuit court of the United Slates, without any copy of the record, and Hint that court should proceed lo hear and determine the same as if it had been originally instituted therein; and that in all cases of injuries to the persons or property of individuals acting under the laws of the U. States for disobedience to the ordinance and laws of South Carolina in performance thereof, redress may be sought in the courts of the United States. It may be expedient, also, by modifying the resolution of the 3d of March, 1791, to authorise the marshals to make the...
