This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oversight Hearing on the Science and Technology Programs of the Department of Commerce: Hearing Before the Subcommittee on Science, Technology, and Space of the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, United States Senate, One Hundred Fourth Congress, First Session, January 31, 1995 The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10:00 a.m. in room SR-253, Russell Senate Office Building, Hon. Conrad Burns, Chairman of the Subcommittee, presiding. Staff members assigned to this hearing: Louis C. Whitsett, senior counsel, and Timothy B. Kyger, professional staff member; and Patrick H. Windham, minority senior professional staff member. Opening Statement Of Senator Burns Senator Burns. Good morning. Before we get started this morning, I want to make a couple of comments. It has been my privilege to work with Senator Rockefeller the past 4 years on this particular committee, when he was chairing it. And I just want to note his leadership and his dedication to this committee, and the area that it covers, as we start out sort of with an explosion of new leadership around here and the ways to maybe get some things done. But I appreciate his support and his cooperation in the past, and I look forward to working with Senator Rockefeller as we try to form new legislation to cover this particular area. Also, I want to welcome Secretary Brown this morning. He has exemplified himself very well I think in traveling around the world and representing this country and the technologies, and trying to do what we think is very important to keep this country competitive, and also to keep us No. 1 in the Nation. I think he shares the same views...
